

Mandatory retirement at age 60 is an arbitrary regulation never subjected to scientific evaluation or basis. It is pure discrimination.

If a pilot can pass the physical and skill requirements, then why make him quit.

It time to take the politics out of this senseless regulation and allow US pilots to fly in their own country past age 60 just as pilots of foreign carriers are allowed to do so in the US.