

The FAA has chosen to obstruct scientific studies that might have produced credible evidence to overturn the rule. The FAA has a long tarnished past with regard to being objective on the age 60 rule. It needs to be resented and pilots be allowed to work and generate a database for a legitimate retirement age. The medical rules are already in place on this issue. Please let them work.