

This is such a archaic rule considering our advanced medical testing ability. How can a pilot be safe one day and then on his birthday the next day become unsafe? If abilites are so impared at 60, why allow 60 plus pilots fly commercial 135 operations? It seems the rest of the world is on board with extending the age 60 rule. Let's follow suit!