

Dear FAA,

It is with great comfort that I note that this rule has finally come into the forefront. Great work! Please expedite its implementation.

I also hope that you would broaden the definition of 'animal' to include not only pets but also those helpless animals destined for labs or zoos, and pets from other countries since this is also a major area of animal abuse.

Thank you!