

First I would like to thank the agency for proposing a requirement for airlines to file monthly reports on incidents involving animals, and for the Secretary of Transportation to make this information available to the public so consumers can evaluate specific airlines' records.

I would also like to urge the agency to finalize the rule as soon as possible, although it is concerning that the rule only applies to US family pets, instead of applying the rule to other animals.