

I commend you for making efforts to protect animals during flight. I trust this will be finalized as soon as possible. It would be good also if the final rule could define animal to include "all" animals being transported. Thank you so much for this.