

I feel that this is a good idea. Implementation of photo ID pilot licenses would be relatively simple. Since all states have photo driver's licenses; using a similar system for pilot licenses or medical certificates (since medical certificates are usually updated more frequently than pilot licenses). Photos could also be databsed for cross referencing if the need arose.

Thank you

Alan Dortch