Dear sir or Ma'am,

I fail to see how carrying proper photo I.D. as a private pilot would have prevented the cowardly attacks of Sept. 11th. I fly for the love of it. I sacrifice other pleasures in life because of the expense of flying, and thankfully have a most understanding (non-flying) wife. If you propose to require special I.D. for pilots, at greater expense, without assured success, then the cowards have won. They chip away at our freedoms by creating fear and paranoia resulting in laws passed in a hurried attempt to prevent such a thing from happening again. There is no quick fix, so please, take the time to make informed, well thought decisions. Don't punish law abiding Americans for the dastardly acts of outsiders.
