

As a glider instructor, one concern I have is that the younger student pilots. Current procedures allow for a parent to verify the identity of the young pilot who can get a student pilot certificate at 14 years. Those individuals may not have access to an acceptable form of ID.