

While I have no problem with the proposal I do have some concern with the language contained in 658.13 (g). This section describes a Dromedary as a box, deck or plate. I would like to suggest that the definition of a Dromedary be that of a box or an enclosed container. The term deck or plate should be removed from 658.13(g).