

It has come to my attention that the FRA and specifically the Secretary of the FRA has met with representatives from Roseville, CA concerning the train horn issue. According to the Arlington, Herald newspaper, she also met with a group of Illionis mayors. A synopsis of those discussions should be posted as the discussions may prove helpful to those of us who are still working on our comments.