

I read about this docket in the Los Angeles Times. Having trained flight attendants with emergency medical equipment would save many lives. Please pass this regulation!