

I support more medical equipment on flights. I am a twenty year paramedic and would appreciate some tools to help if the need were to arise. A friend , also paramedic in California, assisted on a flight across the U.S. and helped someone with a heart problem.