

National park overflights must be banned. First, national parks and their airspace must be under exclusive control of the Secretary of the Interior, Second, aircraft must not be allowed to fly within 10 miles of non-urban national parks and other related areas, and Third, we must maintain the unadulterated quite in the parks, i.e. no aircraft noise should be audible and aircraft should not be visible.