

A friend of mine, Brett Stone, passed away due to sudden heart failure this summer on a Frontier Airlines flight. An AED would have saved his life, but was not available on the airplane. Please make a change. Please make AEDs mandatory on all commercial flights. Please don't risk any more lives. Brett will be deeply missed.