

We, and many others in Mercer County, live and work on a farm. Our day begins when the sun comes up, and if we need to go into town to get parts or supplies our work is delayed while we wait for the business places on mountain time to open up in the morning. If the county were placed in the central time zone we could cut down any delays by at least one hour. That would be a great help during our busy summer season.