

I would like to have the time zone change approved for Mercer County, North Dakota. The change would be from mountain time to central time. Working in the county of Mercer under mountain time and living in the counter of Mercer under central time zone necessitates our household to have two clocks, each in a different times zone. The entire state of North Dakota should be one time zone.