

This proposed rule would have great impact on the livelihoods of aerial advertisers across the country. There are no safety of flight issues to be resolved and considering the negative impact of such a rule, this proposal should be abandoned.

Carol Walker