Dear Sir,

Docket No: FAA-1999-6063 Revision of Braking Systems; Airworthiness Standards to Harmonise with European Airworthiness Standards for Transport Category Airplanes

Please accept the comment below on the Supplemental Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (SNPRM).

The initial set of European and US comments on NPRM 99-16 and NPA 25D-291 were discussed at the meeting of the ARAC Harmonisation Working Group, following which a number of changes were agreed to be put to ARAC and thence to the FAA for adoption. As a result the FAA have responded by issuing this Supplemental NPRM.

CAA would therefore like to formally advise FAA that it has no adverse comment on the SNPRM.

Thank you for the opportunity to take part in your rulemaking process.

Yours faithfully,

M Poole
