

I would like to go on record as absolutely opposing allowing drivers as young as 18 to drive big rigs in interstate commerce. Travelling on interstate highways is dangerous enough as it is.