

I have raised 4 children, 3 boys and 1 girl. The youngest is now 23 yrs old. They are all responsible, contributing adults now, but at age 18, I would not have wanted any of them to operate a tractor-trailer. They were easily distracted and carefree at that time in their lives. They were invincible and had little regard for the responsibility FOR others. Please reconsider this idea.