

I don't think this is a wise idea. 18 year olds, fresh out of school are going to prove to be a detriment to public safety. I am sure of it. You are already complaining about "too many trucks on the road", "trucks causing accidents (which is another comment at a later time)" and now you want to put 18 year olds in these trucks???. Please reconsider this...There is a real safety concern here.