

The thought of having an 18 year old driving a commercial truck scares me to death. They can't rent a car but the government will not let them drive such a powerfull vehicle??? I already lost a good friend in a trucking accident, I do not want to see increased accidents with these younger drivers on the road.