

I am opposed to allowing Mexican carriers to operate for up to 18 months before a safety audit is done by U.S. officials. Safety audits must be done before Mexican carriers enter the U.S. to protect other drivers using American highways.