

I am in favor of requiring tire pressure monitoring devices to be added to light vehicles. I have seen the result of one truck crash involving a semi-truck hitting a man on the shoulder of the highway. This man was a "good samaritan" who stopped to assist another stranded motorist. The reason the car was stranded?? - a tire blew out.