

I believe having a device on vehicles that monitors tire pressure would save lives and money. When I consider a dollar amount under $100.00 compared to the cost of a human life, the savings on gas mileage, tire wear, and the costs associated with even a minor accident I am all for the proposed legislation.