

I fully support the rules proposed in the NPRM FAA-2001-10047. The process used in its development was fair, impartial, and truly representative of the industry to which this rulemaking will impact the most. For that reason, I believe this document should receive priority approval so that it can be implemented as soon as possible.