

I believe it is unfair to discriminated against people obtaining a CDL whom have diabetes. People applying for CDL should undergo individual health assestments; including those people who take insulin.