

The exclusion of drivers with controlled diabetes has been a particular challenge in this rural public transit service. Maybe I have just misinterpreted the rules?

On the one hand we pledge every effort to hire people under the Americans With Disabilities Act. On the other hand we must refuse to hire some of the very best candidates due only to their controlled diabetes. Please Please Please continue the studies, which I believe will ultimately end this discrimination.