

I would encourage the focus be on appropriate maintenance and periodic inspection of manufacturer installed lighting and providing guidelines for the installation and periodic inspection of aftermarket lighting. These guidelines can and should include fines for non-compliance.

I would discourage limiting the public's ability to seek out and enhance the lighting options for their vehicles. Thank you for considering my comment.