

seems to me if you could light up the expressway like the dan ryan or edens in chicago there would be no glare problem. you wouldnt need high beam just to see. i dont use express ways here because ramps are so dark (onandoff)i cant see them til last minute. ive been here 15 years and take rancho road because its just too dark