

The glare from headlights mounted on light trucks and SUV's are very disturbing. This headlights are mounted at a much higher level. A regulation must be in place to overcome this issue.