

Nighttime glare from fog lights are distracting and poses a great risk to oncoming travelers. The glare is far worse than the light coming from normal headlights. I feel the extra lights should be banned for the safety of all drivers.