

I am literally blinded by the glare of these new HID lamps during the day and at night!!!! I have actually driven off the road. My husband is affected in this manner also. We are also bother by the lights of large vehicles such as the Ford Explorer and large pick up trucks.

Please do something about this . It is a very dangerous situation. We need safety not vanity lamps.