

FAR 145.3(c) Directly in charge.

This still is a problem sentence. The public still says this is a Cell phone world and they should be able to be available by phone, in their car conducting business. Please re-state this to read that the person must be in the area where the work is performed.