

Commercial Airline Pilots SHOULD BE ARMED IMMEDIATELY if not sooner. Not only should they be armed surveillance should be afforded the crew to the passenger cabin to include audio feeds that the crew could monitor anytime a cabin attendant alerted them via a wireless device carried on their person. Who in their right mind would be concerned about the cockpit crew given the terrorist environment that we the American people face today in our skies?