

I am a professional pilot by trade flying for a airline in the US, jetBlue. I would like to be armed as the last stop for events. I would also like to go thru Federal Marshall firearm training with particular training for close combat firearm. Carry of a firearm should be by choice and not forced, but at least have the option.