

Airport screeners should be U.S. Citizens, have lived long enough in the United States to have a through background check and be High School Graduates with a fluent command of the English Language.