

Transient aircraft provide the income that airports require to stay viable. Disallowing transient aircraft into College Park, Potomac, and Hyde will effectively close those airports, and the businesses that depend upon them. The proposed security procedures should be amended to allow transient aircraft and pilots to land at these airports.