

As a safety professional in the private industry the additional training required by this docket could be beneficial to the private industry if the training material was made available. It appears this training is mandatory for state and federal employees only but if training was available to non-government employees, assistance in compliance certification could be provided from the private industry.