

Transportation Data for Alaska Tribes is incomplete. We need to make sure that Indian Reservation Roads Inventories are accepted by BIA and put into the inventory for existing and proposed routes in Alaska. Anything less would prevent the Alaska Nations from participating fully in the government to government relationship in regard to transportation issues of the 21st Century.