

Being that the aviation industry is expanding so quickly, I believe we need to allow this bill to pass. Only aircraft with the technology to detect aircraft collisions shall be able to participate. It is inevitable that the U.S. will need to open up more "lanes on the sky highway", so to speak.