

Would like to locate office that approves termination of rail service, and removal of bridges, rails, etc. I have been given the location to be the "Land Transportation Authority" but cannot find it listed within this site listings.