

The SFAR currently includes the R-44 helicopter. The operating experience gained since the original issuance of the SFAR and the accident statistics have proved that the R-44 is as safe , if not safer, as any other helicopter operating in the fleet either commercially or for instruction. Recommend the R-44 be removed from the SFAR NPRM.