

docket 11580 and 13623

Until such time a finger can be pointed directly at General Aviation as being a threat to National Security, the General Aviation industry at the Washington 3 (Hyde, College Park, and Potomac) should be allowed to operate freely. Please give proper consideration to this issue in future rulemaking sessions.