

I am opposed to any action that is not open, public, and subject to hearing, review, and appeal. Revocation without cause is inexcusable in this country. Put this before the Supreme court for Constitutional review before implementation.