

NPRM should be withdrawn. There were no notice in advance re: this issue and the Alphabet groups and individuals should have an opportunity to digest this nprm and comment. What is particularly hard to swallow is the assumption that one is guilty before the fact and has no chance to plead his innocence with the burden of proof falling on the suspect. This is in direct conflict with the American way of life!