

As a Police Lieutenant, and having served over 20+ years in law enforcement, I understand the need for security. However, this proposal is far to drastic and does not allow for any reasonable avenue for appeal. Our government should not take away freedoms arbitrarily, nor without allowing for a viable venue of appeal.