

It's unbelievable that in the USA a rule such as this could come into being. Pilots or mechanics can be stripped of their ratings without even being told of the specifics of their guilt.

This truly an example of guilty or conviction without any defense even possible or of even faced with the charges.

This rule needs to be repealed immediately

thanks
Rick Hawkins