

I am totally against this new FAR. Any one of your "highly trained" TSA "specialists" who just might happen to have a bone to pick with a pilot can completely destroy his/her career simply by telling a supervisor that the pilot is a threat. This is ludicrous!!! Gee, do you people running the TSA or FAA have any sense at all?!?!?! A true terrorist probably isn't going to have a pilot certificate anyways!!! You people are out of control and systematically destroying the aviation industry, are you terrorists? Rescind this stupid FAR!
